DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.
Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated publicly in court that Dr J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne, that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he re-era was Chlorodyne. See LANCET, Feb. 31, 1864.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Extract from MEDICAL TIMES, Jan. 12th, 1866—Is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would not be thus singularly popular did it not subtly & wantonly

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is the best and most certain remedy in Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Consumption, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &c.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is a certain cure in Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colic, &c.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we can scarcely possibly exaggerate the necessity of adopting it in all cases.' From A. Montgomerie, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay—'Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I mainly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering and when all other medicines had failed.'

Fernald's Specific has stood the test of years, and it with which it acts on the system and removes pain and the cause of pain—that is to say, the condition of the blood and stomach which produced the affliction—can be witnessed by thousands. The cure is as COMPLETE as it is RAPID, and, strengthened by the testimonies of a large body of patients who have received almost INSTANTANEOUS relief after all other remedies have ing it to the notice of the public. To the constitution it is harmless; to the fluids of the human frame it adds a healthy impetus; to the system generally it is invigorating to a degree unparalleled; and both sexes may take it to equal advantage. A dose taken about once a month, operates most effectually in preventing a return of the complaint.

What Will Congress Do?

In the face of the popular verdict recorded so unmistakably against the pernicious acts of last session, it is not difficult to determine the precise role that the American Congress will assume during the present session. Will they impeach the President and thus precipitate a bloody conflict with the Executive? Or will they tamely submit to have the laws passed by them last year quietly set aside, and their pot schemes for reconstruction and the investment of the ignorant black masses of the South with the franchise declared by the highest legal authority to be unconstitutional? Congress must either assert, at all hazards, their right to pass any and every law they please, by a two-thirds majority, over the President's veto, or they must abandon the position assumed by them last year, and tacitly acknowledge themselves to have been wrong and the President right. The latter alternative will, we think, be the one adopted. The leading Radicals—the Butlers, Stevens and Sumners, who have signed too deeply to be forgiven—cannot retrace their steps if they would; but the more moderate of the party—men who are always at hand to vote, but are seldom heard—will trim their sails to catch the popular breeze and glide quietly into the harbor of Conservatism. This class, voting with the Democrats, will refuse to impeach the President, and, blaming the impetuosity of their leaders for the ruin of their party, will throw up their caps in favor of General Grant as the Conservative Republican candidate for the Presidency. The policy of the moderate Radicals will, we think, be the policy adopted by Congress. A majority would hardly dare to vote to oust Mr Johnson, with a knowledge of the fact that they would not be supported by the people, and the certainty that they would be resisted with all the force at his command by the President. Congress has never, in reality, controlled the popular vote of the States. The blunders of the Democrats lost them the support of many in the North who had lost friends and relatives in the war while the recollection of the lost ones was yet green in their memories. The check which Mr Johnson gave the Fenians on the Canadian border, in June, 1866, drew the Irish voters into the Republican ranks last fall; and the unwise speeches of the President, made during his unlucky tour through the Northern and Western States to Chicago, in the same season, cost his policy many thousand supporters. But time has healed the gaping wounds opened by the fratricidal conflict, convinced the Fenians that their raid was Quixotic and ludicrous, and taught the President that political speech-making by the Chief Magistrate of the nation are not appreciated by his audiences. Hence we find that as the causes which led last year to the defeat of the Democrats are removed, the majority of the people return to swell the ranks of that party and are gaining for them easy victories everywhere. The heart of the North was never with Congress in its oppression of the South. They saw plainly that the power that could deprive one section of the States of its political privileges could likewise deprive the other; and hence, fearful lest the body which they had created should some day turn from mangling the prostrate form of political liberty in the South to destroying the cherished institutions of the North, they have set the seal of condemnation upon their high-handed acts.

THE MONEY MARKET.—The plethora of money and the stagnant position of trade are points, observes the Standard, which occupy general attention. The investments made in Indian and colonial securities have carried their quotations to a high point, but they will go even better if other channels are not opened for the employment of capital. English stocks will no doubt attract further investments shortly, but at present it appears difficult to pass the magic figure of 95. When there is a return of activity a variety of cheap selections can be made which will yield good interest for the money employed. Railway shares may hereafter again improve, because the weather is favourable for traffic; and should the harvest be a success, the consequences to the labouring population will be most important. The absence of confidence, however, is strongly felt, particularly in manufacturing and trading circles.

DELAYED DESPATCHES.
Eastern States.
St. Louis, Nov. 16.—Seymour Voulair, a prominent criminal lawyer of this city, was shot last night by Isaac Ruth, clerk in the post office. Ruth was returning from the theatre with Voulair's divorced wife, when Voulair met and fired at Ruth. Ruth returned the fire by shooting Voulair in the right breast. He now lies in a critical condition. The affair has caused much excitement, as the parties occupy highly respectable positions.
CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—A Times' special says it is understood that the President will devote a considerable portion of his message to finance. The collection of revenue evidence shows that over $100,000,000 have been lost from whisky alone last year by the inefficiency and corruption of revenue officers. The President has determined to correct these abuses.
General Schofield has decided, after a consultation with the President, to arrest persons making incendiary speeches in his district, or doing any act to array the white and black races against each other.
CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The Times' special says many Republican Congressmen wish to adjourn till the regular session in December, believing that nothing can be done in the eight days remaining in the November session.
A delegation of California Democrats has been here asking for the control of the patronage of the State. The President was in bad humor and declined to see them. They await a change in his temper.
NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—A Tribune's special says that Senator Sherman intends to introduce a bill converting the maturing debt into a large consolidated loan of not less than thirty years, of six per cent., with one per cent. tax, making it equivalent to a five per cent. loan.

What Will Congress Do?

BALTIMORE, Nov. 14.—Edward A. Pollard, author of the "History of the Lost Cause," was attacked while walking the street with his wife, by the son and nephew of Henry A. Wise, who both fired at Pollard, striking him in the arm. Pollard returned the fire, but without effect.
A Herald Washington special says Schofield has informed the President that the negroes of his district are generally armed and had the whites at a great disadvantage. It is probable some measure will be taken to prevent a dangerous use by the negroes of their superiority in arms and organization.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—The steamer Great Republic from Hong Kong and Yokohama arrived at 3 o'clock p. m. The principal interest of the foreigners in Japan, centres in the approaching opening of the City of Osaka, with its port Higo, on the shores of the Sea of Surauado, more generally spoken of as the Island Sea, the City of Yeddo and a port on the west coast, which will probably be Naniot. English and American surveys have been taken of the principal ports on the west coast, but no decision has been made public as to which will be opened. From all that can be gathered from letters from Osaka and observations of visitors to Yeddo, both places will be opened as soon as practical. In Yeddo an immense hotel is being prepared by the government for the use of foreigners. In Osaka about 10 acres have been set apart for foreign occupation. The ratifications of the Belgian treaty were exchanged at Yeddo on the 10th ult.
A letter from Manila, October 7th, gives the following painful intelligence: Since our report of the 19th ult., we have had boisterous weather, Manila during the 25th and 26th ult., was under water, in some parts there were four feet of water over the streets, and disastrous inundations have taken place in the northern provinces.
Reports have been received (yesterday) from Hocas that three villages have entirely disappeared and several hundred lives lost.
The mails from Europe of the 10th of August, which should have arrived here about the 24th ult., have not done so, and fears are entertained of the steamers from Hong Kong to this port being lost. The Water Lily has put in distress with heavy damages. The Sardinia, from this city to New York, has put back also, with heavy damages; and the master of the Stuart, Worthey, has arrived in an open boat, having been wrecked in a gale on the Fourth Danger Shoal.

Fears are entertained of the Annie Langton and Fort Regent, both having been last seen in a very dangerous position.
The Par Hazard, British bark is a total wreck on the coast of Baudog, to the south, and the news of further disasters is daily arriving.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—David Johnson sues the stockholders of the Burning Moscow Mining Company for $450,000 on a judgment rendered in 1865.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—The corner stone of the monument to be erected by the I. O. O. F., to the memory of S. H. Parker, first Grand Master of the Order in the State, was laid yesterday afternoon in the presence of the Order and others. The monument will be erected in Odd Fellows' Cemetery.
Mrs. Mary C. Hyde sues for a divorce from her husband upon grounds of intemperance, cruelty and adultery. Mrs. Hyde is said to be Mrs. Cunningham Burdell, who was so prominent before the public in connection with the estate of Dr. Burdell in New York, after his murder, which occurred in the house where she resided.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—The Fenian Brotherhood State Convention adjourned on the 16th inst., after a three days' session. The convention transacted considerable important business and perfect harmony characterized its deliberations. It unanimously indorsed the proceeding of the Congress of the Fenian Brotherhood of the U. S. recently held at Cleveland, Ohio, and pledged a hearty support of President Roberts in his efforts for the liberation of Ireland. A resolution to the memory of Thos. Francis Meagher was adopted, also one of sympathy with the prisoners in Ireland and a determination to assist their families.

MARKETS.

Flour—The demand for flour is restricted to local trade. Advances just at hand from Asia are considered unfavorable to further immediate shipments in that direction. Oregon extra brands nominal, at $7 25 @ $7 50—outside figure for small lots; at the close, 1,000 sks Pioneer extra was disposed of at $7 50.
Wheat—Late China advices do not warrant further shipments at present. Our export demand is therefore restricted to the New York and English markets. This fact, however, excites no uneasiness, as England will take all of our surplus at fair rates. The arrival of fresh tonnage will lead to a renewal of the export demand at an early date. Sales include 700 700 sks, medium, at $2 45; 2,500 choice shipping, at a price equivalent to $2 55 per 100 lbs.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Functional Disorders.—Who would be well must see that every organ of the body does its duty fully and fairly, which every one may certainly insure by occasionally resorting to these Pills, or by taking a course of them, according to the printed directions on each box. Stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are all reached by their purifying and corrective qualities, and any departure from their natural action is strenuously resisted, and order and regularity enforced. Health may always be preserved by attentive obedience to Holloway's directions, and by using his medicines as directed by them. All obstructions will be removed, the blood will be purified, and its free and faultless circulation established. 33 no19 1w

How it was DONE.—The news from San Francisco, published by the Portland dailies on the morning of the 14th, came here from San Francisco. The papers of the latter city received it from New York. Its receipt from that direction created something of a sensation, at least in the offices of the Alta and the Bulletin, both of which papers had sent correspondents to Alaska by the John L. Stephens. It all came about in this way: The New York Herald also sent a correspondent who, it seems, is one of the get-up-and-get kind of men. On the return trip of the Stephens she touched at a point on Vancouver Island, when the Herald correspondent slipped off and thence procured private conveyance to Victoria. Here he despatched the telegrams to the Herald, paying as for a private despatch. The next morning it appeared in the New York Herald, from which it was copied and sent to Chicago and thence by the agent of the California Associated Press to San Francisco. Thus the two leading dailies of that city, after having gone to the expense of sending correspondents to Alaska to get the first news of the transfer of the territory, were compelled to copy from the New York Herald and to pay for its transmission across the continent. Meanwhile the two correspondents were taking their ease on board the Stephens, and, doubtless, chuckling within themselves at having the "latest news from Alaska" safely locked up in their portfolios. They will probably open their optics when they arrive at San Francisco and find that all their news is old, "stale and unprofitable."—Portland Oregonian.

Max Stowe lectured again last evening to a slim audience. Her remarks were attentively listened to, and at the close the lecturer gave the audience a fair opportunity to ask questions; but only one or two unimportant ones were offered. In reply to one querist, Mrs Stowe stated that there were 15,000,000 spiritualists in the United States! a statement that made us feel sorry for the States. Mrs Stowe is a clever woman—a v-e-r-y clever woman. The lecture was a good moral exhortation, and were the lady to drop her pretensions to supernatural agency, she would, doubtless, effect some good in the world as a moral reformer; but so long as she pretends to be controlled in what she says and does by "spirits," and to heal diseases through spiritual assistance and agency, just so long will she be regarded by a large majority of her hearers as an impostor.

TELEGRAPHIC.—A most noticeable instance of American newspaper enterprise, and the advantages derived from oceanic telegraphy may be instanced in the fact that the New York Tribune obtained and published the news of Garibaldi's arrest before it was even known to a single person in London or all England. The fact was transmitted through England by the Tribune's special correspondent, in cypher—so that it was not even known to the telegraphic operators themselves.

CHEAP FARES.—The determination of the North American Steamship Company to place the Oregonian on the Panama route, connecting with the new vessel Nebraska, in opposition to the P. M. S. S. Co's ship, has had the effect of lowering the rates of passage by the Oregonian. First cabin fares are $100 and $125; second cabin, $70; steerage, $40; by mail line, first cabin, $132 and $170; second cabin, $80; steerage, $42 and $50.

ACCIDENT AT OLYMPIA.—On the evening of the 19th, more than half the circle of seats at Bartholomew's circus, crowded with men, women and children, suddenly gave way, causing the greatest confusion. Several persons were injured. Mr Waddle had a leg broken; a little daughter of Mr O'Neil is said to be considerably injured; others slightly bruised. The company played on the following night for the benefit of the sufferers.

NOSE BITTEN OFF.—George Murdoch of William Creek, during a fight recently with a man named Thistlewaite, in a saloon, had his nose bitten off. The doctors on the creek endeavored to replace the lost member by cutting a piece from the injured man's cheek, but failed, and left him in a more disfigured state than before they practiced upon him.

THE SCHOONER KATE.—A telegram from San Francisco, yesterday, announces that the schooner, which was overdue at this port with a cargo of Sandwich Islands produce, has put into San Francisco bay in distress, having met with severe weather since leaving Honolulu. The schooner will repair at San Francisco.

FINED.—George Frances was yesterday ordered by the Police Magistrate to pay five dollars fine for hitting Pilly Parlow in the mouth a few days since at Esquimalt. George forked over in preference to accepting free lodgings for seven days in the lunatic asylum.

PUBLIC MEETING.—The Mayor, in answer to a numerous signed requisition, has called a public meeting for to-morrow evening, at 7 o'clock, at the theatre, to consider the Capital question. The requisition was handed in at too late an hour last night to admit of publication to-day.

FARE ON THE ELIZA ANDERSON between Victoria and Olympia has been advanced to $10.50 each way. Cattle are carried for $5 per head. It is said that the steamer Wilson G. Hunt is coming round from Portland to run as opposition boat on Puget Sound.

FROM THE WEST COAST.—The schooner Surprise, from San Juan harbor, arrived yesterday with furs and fish oil. She reports that the schooner Codfish, when last heard from, was at Barclay Sound three weeks ago. The Codfish is overdue at this port.

THE "BIRCH" RON.—It is rumored that Birch, the peripatetic Secretary of this Colony, is to return here and resume his position. Heaven help the poor unfortunate Colony if the rumor be confirmed.

A DAUGHTER OF Capt. Cook, the navigator, died recently, in England, at the age of 104 years. Her name was Rumsey. Captain Cook was killed more than eighty-eight years ago, February 14th, 1779.

THE schooner Alpha will be sold by the Marshal in Admiralty, on Tuesday next. The vessel is one of the best of her class in these waters, and may be seen at Kavanagh's wharf.

FROM ALASKA.—The vessel that ran into Esquimalt harbor on Monday night was the ship Mameluke from New Archangel. She brings no later news.

A BREAKWATER has been built in Port Townsend harbor to protect ships from violent south-east gales, which are of frequent occurrence there.

LADY FRANKLIN, widow of the lamented Arctic explorer, has, according to the Cherbourg Journal, arrived in that town on board a United States frigate from New York.

The Eliza Anderson sailed for Seattle yesterday to bring over the Circus Company. She will return on Tuesday.

DAVID COPPERFIELD will shortly be produced at the theatre.

A SAW MILL will shortly be erected at Port Angeles.

The report of the Municipal Council meeting will appear to-morrow.

Extraordinary Story.—What has been done with Maximilian's Remains.

(Correspondence of the New York "Tribune.")

QUERETARO, August 24.—Before my departure from the Capital, I heard that the body of the late Emperor had left this place and was well on its way to the coast. Imagine my surprise, when I was asked this morning if I would like to visit the corpse; and, if it is a possibility, my horror and disgust when I saw and heard what I note below. I cannot express my abhorrence of what I have to-day witnessed in this city, now so widely celebrated as the place of the assassination of Maximilian and his Generals. Nor can I form any structure of language which will adequately impress the reader with a faithful representation of all I should like to publish to the world.

I found the coffin containing the remains in a room in the second story of the house occupied by Sr Don Munos Ledo. A soldier stood guard at the door ready to give admittance to all who might desire to look at the body, which willingness was in our own case somewhat accelerated by a few reals. The apartment bore the appearance of once having been used for a storeroom, and was both very dark and extremely filthy. The coffin stood in the centre of the room, resting upon a couple of rude benches. It is covered with black cloth, and adorned with a cheap quality of gold lace, the top of which has a false cover or lid, opening which case revealed three glasses, through which the silent form of the ill-fated Austrian was shown by the aid of a penny tallow candle kept by the soldier for visitors' use. The Emperor was dressed in a suit composed of a blue coat, with a row of brass buttons in front, dark blue pants and heavy cavalry boots. His hands were covered with a pair of white gloves very much soiled. His mouth and eyes were partially open, plainly showing his teeth and the color of his eyes. His beard is quite gone, as well as the greater part of his hair, which, I am informed, has been cut off by Dr Liso, who had charge of the embalming, and sold, he receiving as high as five ounces, $80, for small locks of the same. The body of the Emperor remained at Liso's house until last week, when it was removed to its present location, during which time he made use of it as a means of speculation.

He also disposed of whatever effects belonging to Maximilian he could obtain, charging large sums for small pieces of his bloodstained garments, which he put up and sold. It is also alleged that he has even removed a small portion of the skull, for which he obtained a large sum, replacing it with wood. I cannot vouch for this, but it has general belief here. The doctor affirms that the Government has failed to pay him his bill for the embalment, of some $40,000, and declares his intention of making his money the surest way possible.

This same man Liso, together with a human being called Refugio Gonzalez, delivered up General Miramon. The general had been wounded in the face, and called in Liso's assistance, who extended the operations to as long a period as possible, and when Miramon learned the city had been sold, he attempted to leave the house, but found a soldier awaiting him at the door, who took him into custody. As he was being removed to prison, Miramon handed his purse, containing money and private papers, to Liso, who in turn gave it to Escobedo. That officer ordered it returned to its owner. Liso intends accompanying Maximilian's remains to Europe, expecting to receive a handsome recompense from the Emperor of Austria.

AMUSING.
Mr Greeley's estimate of the Loyal Leaguers as a set of 'narrow-minded blockheads,' was foreshadowed a week before by the Albany Evening Journal, who said, 'Mr Horace Greeley holds broad and philosophical views of abstract truth.'

PNEUMONIC.—An urohin, leading a small dog along the streets some days ago, was accosted by a gentleman as follows: 'Well, my son, what's your dog's name?' 'Hain't got any yet.' 'Well, why don't you name him?' 'Give him some good name. Call him Andy Johnson.' 'I don't like to do that,—I would be disrespectful to the President.' 'Well, then, name him Boast Butler.' 'I won't do that, neither, for that would be disrespectful to the dog.'

My first is what lies at the door; my second is a kind of a corn; and my third is what nobody can do without, and my whole is one of the United States. Matrimony.

A gentleman was threatening to beat a dog which barked intolerably. 'Why,' exclaimed an Irishman, who was present, 'would you bate a poor dumb animal for spakin' out?'

WHAT THE WEST WANTS.—The Rev. Peter Cartwright, "The Pioneer Preacher of the West," recently addressed a large audience in Philadelphia, giving incidents of his life. He discoursed as follows concerning the preachers now sent to the West, in contrast with those of earlier days:—'Of late years, my friends, another breed of preachers are transferred to us; these are the hysterical, dyspeptic, sore-throat, blue-tingered sort of preachers. They travel among you; they are unacceptable; they are useless lumber; and lo! their zeal all at once moves (like a seventy-four rigged for England) to go to the West, and 'help the West.' We don't want any such cattle. I tell you now, in my seventy-fifth year, I can outpreach and outwork dozens of these old dyspeptic things.'

A CANADIAN PRINCESS.—The Princess of Salm-Salm, a very pretty little woman, now in her twenty-seventh year, is not "an American lady," nor was her maiden name Le Clerq. Her father, who has resided in Canada for several years, bears a very different surname, and is a Colonel in the British service. Previous to his residence in Canada he served in the East Indies, where his daughter was born, her mother being a half-caste Hindoo. It is pretty clear from these premises that the Princess Salm-Salm is not, and cannot be, "a niece of President Johnson." Ten years ago she arrived in Philadelphia with "a plentiful scarcity" of money, having, indeed, only the clothes which she then wore. Her story, which there is no reason to discredit, is that her father having treated her so very harshly as to make home unhappy, she had fled from Canada. At that time, according to the date of her birth in the Almanach de Gotha, Miss Agnes Le Clerq (as she called herself) wanted some months of sweet seventeen, but she looked three or four years older. She left Philadelphia early in 1858, and joined a travelling circus, where she soon became a sort of "star." She married one of the horse-riders of the company, by whom she had one child. Inasmuch as she married her present princely spouse in 1862, it is to be presumed that her first husband died. The Princess is alike active in mind and body, capable of enduring privation and fatigue, quick at resources, lively in conversation, and easy in her manners. She speaks French fluently, having learned the language in Canada. Should her husband escape from the peril which now threatens him, there is no doubt that the Emperor of Austria will amply reward him and his wife for their exertions and sympathy for his brother, the late Archduke Maximilian.

THE ECONOMY OF HEALTH.—This busy nation of Americans have 12,000,000 working people, whose services may be estimated at $2 a day, and their annual loss by sickness at an average of ten days each in the year. This gives a total loss of $240,000,000 a sum three times as large as the whole cost of the General Government, including the Army, Navy, Post Offices, Legislators, Foreign Ministers and all. The amount weighs over six hundred tons in pure gold. A large proportion of this costly suffering might be averted by attention to diet, cleanliness, and above all, by the proper use of the right remedy in season. When a 25 cent box of Ayer's Pills will avert an attack of illness which it would take several days to recover from, or a dollar bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla will expel a lurking disorder that would bring the sufferer to his back for weeks or months, does it take any figures to show the good economy of the investment? When Fever and Ague is rankling in your veins and shaking your life out of you, is it worth the dollar it costs for his AGUE CURE to have the villainous disorder expelled, which it does surely and quickly? When you have taken a cold it is prudent to wait until it has settled on the lungs, when days or weeks or months must be spent in trying to cure it even if it can be cured at all, or is it cheaper to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, costing a few shillings, and remove the trouble before it is serious? It takes no wisdom to decide.

MARTIN LUTHER once thought he saw the devil in his chamber, and threw an inkstand at his head. Had they had in those days AYER'S PILLS to exorcise all the devils that come from a disordered stomach, his laughable fright would not have become a matter of history.

FRED PAYNE has removed his Cheap Shaving Shop to the opposite side of Johnson street, just above the Miner's Saloon.
